Sweat Equity

To be considered for a Habitat Home, you and your family must be willing to complete a minimum of 500 hours of volunteer service to Habitat for Humanity. Your help in building your home and the homes of others is called "Sweat Equity", and may include helping with construction, working in the office or the ReStore or other approved activities. This is voluntary service that has no monetary compensation to you or any member of your family.

I AM WILLING TO COMPLETE THE REQUIRED 500 SWEAT EQUITY HOURS

Please answer Yes or No: Applicant _____ Co-Applicant _____

Willingness to Partner

Owning a Habitat Home requires long-term partnership between the Homeowner and Habitat for Humanity. This partnership is mandatory for owning a Habitat Home and includes annual reviews of financials, as well as but not limited to check-ins from your Family Partner throughout the year. You may also be required to attend a budgeting appointment with Credit Counseling prior to moving into your Habitat home.
